

It has been brought to my attention that the FCC an administrative and out of control agency wishes to impose a federal regulation that is weaker than current Indiana Law in regards to the Do Not Call Rule for telemarketers. This is a state issue that the federal government needs to stay out of. I will be expressing this view my Senators Richard Lugar and Evan Byah, as well as my Congressman Dan Burton.